

Content Producer | Production Team

About us

London Filmed is a digital-first live event production and creative media company powered by people who are transforming the way events are built.

We provide a single-source solution that leverages the power of technology, technical expertise, and creative media to build best-in-class live event media solutions for leading brands and event professionals in the UK, USA, and Europe.

We are proud to work with global brands including The Financial Times, AllSaints, Brompton Bicycles, Google, Beavertown, PA Consulting, and Thinkbox on their event production and video content.

London Filmed is an ambitious company, and we believe that diverse teams are essential for achieving our goals. We are dedicated to cultivating an inclusive environment that honours diversity and encourages equity, inviting candidates from all backgrounds to succeed as part of our team and play a crucial role in the company's success.

The role

We're looking for a Content Producer (Production & Editing) to create and deliver short-form and always-on content for a high-profile, global retail client.

This is a fast-paced, hands-on role that requires strong storytelling abilities, a reactive mindset, and a deep understanding of cultural trends. You'll work across the entire content production process—from concept development to filming, editing, and final delivery—while ensuring all outputs are engaging, on-brand, and strategically aligned.

Based largely in the client's brand new Oxford Street Studio, this is a full-time role with flexibility for on-location shoots.

Key Responsibilities

- Produce, shoot, and edit compelling short-form and always-on content.
- Develop and execute the content calendar, aligning with Client's annual events and programming.
- Brainstorm and develop innovative content formats that enhance storytelling and audience engagement.

- Ensure all content is tailored to specific briefs, audience needs, and platform requirements.
- Write engaging, brand-aligned copy to complement video content.
- React quickly to cultural trends, creating agile, high-impact content that resonates with target audiences.
- Manage production workflows, ensuring efficiency and consistency across projects.

Skills & experience

- Proven experience as a Content Producer, Video Editor, or Creative Producer in a fast-paced environment.
- Strong skills in filming, video editing, and post-production, with proficiency in industry-standard software (e.g., Adobe Premiere Pro, After Effects, DaVinci Resolve).
- Experience in short-form storytelling across social and digital platforms.
- Ability to quickly identify and react to cultural trends with engaging content.
- Strong copywriting skills, with an understanding of brand tone and voice.
- Experience managing content calendars, production workflows, and deadlines.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a high-energy studio environment.
- A creative problem-solver who thrives under pressure and adapts to fast-changing priorities.

The offer

£30,000–40,000 per annum (depending on experience)

12-month FTC

- Full-time, Monday to Friday
- 20 days holiday, exclusive of bank holidays
- Regular professional development opportunities, minimum of monthly 1-1s with quarterly reviews
- Monthly team socials
